CHRISTMAS.—The holiday commenced on Tuesday evening, and the natal day of our Lord dawned upon many who were in no frame of mind to comprehend fully the significance of the halo which surrounds the day in the Christian mind. Not a few kept up their revelries during the whole night, and in the morning presented a sad spectacle; but, as the saying is, "Christmas comes but once a year," and so long as the hilarity was unaccompanied by boisterous and unruly conduct, we are content—indeed gratified—to see so much merriment. The weather was inauspicious. Rain had fallen during the previous night, and the streets were so muddy that locomotion was anything but agreeable; yet the town was alive with people, and greetings of "Merry Christmas" were heard on every hand. Tom-and-Jerry, egg-nog, wines and liquors of all kinds, were to be obtained in the greatest quantity, and it was not allowed to go begging. Fine lunches were spread in the Palace Club Rooms and in the Capitol Saloon. Private families partook of home dinners and recalled the pleasant scenes of the past, now gone forever, but still to memory dear. The "Tiger" was tackled in all his native ferocity, and other games of chance were patronized freely. At present writing (6 p. m.) we have no disturbance to mention.

A CHARITY HOSPITAL.—It is creditable to the benevolence of our people to say that there is a society in Poché which has for its main object the amelioration of the condition of those who meet with misfortune. We refer to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. In a quiet way, and without ostentation or parade, this institution has expended some $1,600 for the relief of the sick and destitute, and has in course of completion a hospital where the sick falling into the hands of the Society may be provided for in a systematic manner. The completion of the hospital will mark an era in the history of Poché, which is worthy of some public demonstration. We suggest that its formal dedication to the humane purposes for which it is designed, be signalized by the attendance of the people and addresses suitable to the occasion. The theme is one well calculated to inspire the orator with words which will touch the heart and stimulate a higher appreciation of the great virtues of benevolence and charity.

THEATRE.—Last night a full house greeted the management when the curtain rose. By the too free use of "the ardent" during the day—it being Christmas—a few were somewhat noisy, but they were gently reminded of the propriety of keeping order, and all went on smoothly. The play of "The Bells" was rendered admirably throughout. Mr. Maguire fully maintaining his reputation as a first class actor. We regret that we were not able to witness this piece to the close, so that we might give a full description of it. Suffice it to say that it took remarkably well with the audience, and its repetition will insure a crowded house. "The Bells" will be repeated to-night.

BRUTAL.—About 9 o'clock last night a Chinaman sought refuge in our office from the danger of some man who had struck him. We hope the perpetrator of a wanton attack upon an unoffending Chinaman will yet meet his deserts. Drunkenness is no adequate excuse for such conduct, and we are not in favor of accepting the plea of insanity in mitigation. Whatever may be said of the Chinese, certain it is that they never pick a quarrel with a white man. Those who are really superior to a Chinaman will manifest that superiority by treating them kindly. A wanton attack is a sad evidence of brutal instincts.

FOR CARSON.—Hon. John R. Wilson, Senator from Lincoln county, starts off this morning for the State Capital to enter upon the discharge of his legislative duties. We are justified by long personal acquaintance in saying that Mr. Wilson, from years of residence on the Pacific coast, and possessing great natural sagacity, is as well qualified for the trust committed to his charge as any member of the Senate. Being thoroughly honest and with a reputation without blot or blemish, we are sure that he will leave a good record behind him at the close of the session.

RAIN.—Yesterday morning we were awakened from our slumbers by the pattering of the rain upon the roof of our domicile, and all day long the light of old Sol was obscured by fog and clouds. Clear weather is not to be reasonably looked for before the first of the month to come. The rain which has fallen has laid the dust, and a few days of sunshine will leave the streets and highways in a much better condition than they have been for some time back.

MASONIC BALL.—The Masonic Ball to be given by the Masons of Poché, on St. John's Day, will take place to-morrow evening in Jacobs & Sultan's building. It is expected that this will be the finest ball of the season, complete arrangements having been made to render the affair a complete success. A fine hall has been secured, good music procured, and every provision made to render it a pleasurable occasion.

TOM AND JERRY.—A pitcher of this glorious beverage was kindly sent to our office yesterday morning, from the saloon of P. H. Wand, with the compliments of the donor. We earnestly hope that our friend of many years' standing may live and flourish through numerous returns of the festive season we now celebrate.

RAILROAD TO POCHE VIA HAMILTON.—We have received information that the C. P. R. Co. is about to make arrangements to build a railroad from Elko to Poché by the way of Hamilton. We propose to make the facts known to our citizens as soon as they are obtained.

LOST.—Last evening, between Laguerre's Restaurant and a house on Meadow Valley street, a plain bracelet, with black enamel and a pearl. A reward of $50 is offered. For particulars, inquire at this office. d26-1f

OWING to the bad state of the weather yesterday afternoon, no matinee performance was given at the Theatre.

THANKS.—Lost a little black and tan pup, answering to the name of "Nellie," on Lacour street Saturday last. Whoever will return said pup to this office will receive the above reward, and no questions asked. Said pup is about three months old.

MUSIC.—Last night the Meagher Guard Brass Band were out upon the streets, discoursing sweet music to all. A marked improvement in their execution is observable.

STAGE.—The Hamilton stage was late last night, owing, no doubt, to the heavy condition of the roads. No passengers arrived.

P. C. Hyman, Esq., goes by the Hamilton stage to San Francisco. We wish him a pleasant trip.

J. F. Kopp is now engaged in the hair-dressing establishment of Charles Castrea, San Jose House. Old friends and new patrons are requested to call and see for themselves. d10-1f
